

Going to the Lohman Building

I am going to the Lohman Building in Jefferson City, Missouri.
The Lohman Building has a lot of neat things to see and do.

I will stay calm and be safe. I will stay with the adult I came with. I will tell someone if I need or want anything.

I will walk through the front door
one time.

I will check in at the front desk. I can write my name in the visitor book. If I don't want to write my name, I don't have to.

There are a lot of things that I can play with and touch! I will be gentle and touch things softly. If I'm not sure if I am allowed to touch something, I will ask an adult.

There are some things I can not touch. There are signs that say, "Please Do Not Touch." I can be a good listener and follow directions. I will not touch these items.

If need to go to the bathroom, I will tell my adult. If I am thirsty, I can ask to get a drink from the water fountain. If my adult says no, I will stay calm.

There is a room to watch a short movie. I will ask my adult if we can watch it.

If my adult says yes, I will sit quietly on the bench. I will keep my hands and feet to myself. If the movie is too loud, I can tell my adult.

There is a train station next door. I might hear a train whistle.
If the train is too loud, I can tell my adult.

There is also a toy that sounds like a steamboat whistle. If I put a money is dropped in this box, there will be a sound. It's okay if I don't like the sound. I can stay calm.

When it is time to leave, I will go with my adult. Visiting the Lohman Building was fun!
